

3rd National Symposium on Advances in Urogenital and Gut Research

First Announcement

3rd December, 2011

The 3rd Advances in Urogenital and Gut Research Symposium will be held at the Esplanade Hotel, in Fremantle on Saturday the 3rd December, prior to the ASCEPT/AuPS meeting in Perth (4-9th, December). This meeting continues the successful series "Advances in Urogenital Research", held since 2004.

Aims:

- To bring together basic and clinical scientists with interests in gastrointestinal and urogenital physiology, pharmacology and disease
- To highlight recent advances in areas of basic and clinical research.
- To promote active participation and collaboration amongst scientists and clinicians.

Features:

- Free poster communications
- Free registration for students
- Three student prizes

For information regarding registration or abstract submission, please contact:

Betty Exintaris (betty.exintaris@monash.edu)

Scott Smid (scott.smid@adelaide.edu.au)

Confirmed speakers to date:

- Hikaru Hashitani (Nagoya City University Graduate School of Medical Sciences)
- Lu Liu (UNSW)
- Richard Lang (Monash University)
- Scott Smid (Adelaide University)

Location:

The Esplanade Hotel, Fremantle,
Western Australia

Organising committee:

- Betty Exintaris (Monash University)
- Scott Smid (Adelaide University)
- Elizabeth Burcher (UNSW)
- Helen Irving (Monash University)
- Sab Ventura (Monash University)
- Russ Chess-Williams (Bond University)
- Donna Sellers (Bond University)
- Kylie Mansfield (UOW)

Registration fee (excl. students) :

$100

(includes arrival coffee, morning / afternoon tea & lunch)

Registration deadline:

Monday 14 November, 2011

Abstract submission deadline:

Monday 14 November, 2011